

WINE LIST

Welcome to our Summer List. It includes many new and exciting wines to complement the season and new menu, and we encourage you to experiment. Please also read our blackboard, where we'll offer a constantly changing choice of wines by the glass and carafe. All the front of house team are trained to provide advice and help in finding just the right wine for you.

3 Chardonnay, Vin de Pays d'Oc, Old Vines, Le Sanglier de la Montagne, France From the hilly vineyards in the heart of the Languedoc, a crisp, refreshing Chardonnay with hints of tropical fruits.	2008	£16.50
4 Pinot Grigio, Carlo Damiani, Italy The wine that everybody wants doesn't really need a description! Dry, crisp and very refreshing.	2009 175ml Glass 250ml Glass ½ Ltr Carafe	£17.00 £4.00 £6.00 £11.50
5 Sauvignon Blanc, Mirror Lake, Marlborough, New Zealand Marlborough Sauvignon has taken the world by storm! This is just how it should be, lots of gooseberries and very refreshing.	2009	£20.50
6 Albariño, Martin Códax, Rias Baixas, Spain Spain's most exciting white wine grape, crisp, fresh and delicious.	2008	£26.50

Dry to Medium, Aromatic and Floral Whites

7 Viognier, Tribu, Mendoza, Argentina Tropical fruits and apricots abound in this deliciously clean and fruity wine from Argentina's Mendoza Valley.	2009	£15.50
8 Chenin Blanc, Klippenkop, South Africa Aromatic flavours on the nose, with a good dollop of fruit and a delightful, zesty finish.	2009	£15.50
9 Traminer Riesling, Sacred Hill, De Bortoli, Australia For those who like fruity medium style wine, this is both spicy and fruity making a pleasant alternative.	2006	£16.50
10 Torrontés, Vida Organica, Familia Zuccardi, Argentina Torrontés has its origins in Spain, but it's probably in Argentina that it's making a name for itself. Highly aromatic but with good acidity, it is so refreshing.	2008	£19.00
11 Grüner Veltliner, Fred Loimer, Austria Grüner Veltliner is Austria's signature grape. With good depth, a certain minerality and a twist of white pepper, it makes for a great food matching wine.	2009	£25.00
12 Gewürztraminer Domaine Gocker, France The often overlooked Gewürztraminer with aromas of rose petals and Turkish delight works wonderfully well with foods that have a light spice.	2008	£26.50

Classics and more complex whites

13 Douro Branco, Lavadores de Feitoria, Portugal Sourcing grapes from some of the best growers of the Douro and using the talents of the Douro's brightest winemakers, a fantastic wine is made. Nuances of melon, mingle with apricot, whilst a crisp finish balances it perfectly.	2009	£23.00
14 Soave, Pieropan, Italy Having made Soave since the 1860s, the Pieropan estate is recognised as the trail blazer in the region. A nose of almond blossom leads through to complex fruits on the palate with a nicely balanced zingy twist of acidity.	2009	£28.50
15 Chablis, Domaine Séguinot-Bordet Burgundy, France The famed expression of Chardonnay; crisp, clean and racy.	2008	£29.00
16 Sancerre, Fournier Père et Fils, Loire, France A classic that really doesn't need an introduction!	2008	£34.50
17 Chardonnay, M3 Vineyard, Shaw and Smith, Australia Old fashioned wine making in the new world. Cousins Shaw and Smith have been fashioning artisan wines in the cool climate Adelaide hills for over 20 years.	2008	£37.00
18 Puligny-Montrachet, Les Charmes, Domaine Chavy, France Undoubtedly one of Burgundy's most famous whites and deservedly so!	2007	£50.00

DESSERT WINE

ROSÉ WINE

44 Merlot-Cabernet Sauvignon Rosé, Cornellana, Chile Aromas of wild strawberry and hints of red cherries abound in this beautiful rosé wine from Chile - delicious!	2009 175ml Glass 250ml Glass ½ Ltr Carafe	£15.50 £3.75 £5.25 £10.50
45 Pinot Grigio, Rosato, Ponte Pietra, Italy By leaving the naturally red Pinot Grigio grape skins in contact with the juice, you get a beautiful "coppery" colour. Deliciously fresh, deliciously drinkable!	2009	£18.50
46 Rosé, Mudhouse, Central Otago, New Zealand Despite not saying it on the label this is made from 100% Pinot Noir grapes. Strawberry, ruby grapefruit, pomegranate - fruit salad in a glass.	2008	£22.50

RED WINE

Lighter, easy drinking

19 Merlot, Cornellana, Rapel Valley, Chile Soft, plummy and jammy fruits abound in this easy going wine.	2009 175ml Glass 175ml Glass ½ Ltr Carafe	£15.50 £3.70 £5.25 £10.50
20 Tarrango Reserve, Waterstone Bridge, Australia Australia's answer to Beaujolais - Soft, ripe, red berried fruits, lots of fruit and with no tannin whatsoever. Served cellar temperature or try it chilled on a very hot day.	2006	£17.00
21 Pinot Noir, Reserve, Nostros, Chile From the cool climate of Chile's Casablanca Valley, this silky, soft wine shows just why this Burgundian grape is so famous.	2009	£17.00
22 Pinot Noir, Marlborough, Mudhouse, New Zealand The famous grape of Burgundy does wonderfully well in New Zealand's temperate climate. Full, fruity and flavoursome reds.	2008	£26.50
23 Fleurie, Cave de Fleurie, France Silky, soft and racy - just how the most popular "Cru" of Beaujolais should be!	2008	£28.50

Rounded and medium bodied reds

24 Cabernet Sauvignon, Kintu, Chile Chile's climate is ideally suited to produce rich, fruit-driven wines such as this.	2009 175ml Glass 250ml Glass ½ Ltr Carafe	£14.50 £3.50 £5.00 £9.75
25 Shiraz, Dry River, Australia Easy going, displaying an abundance of dark berry fruits with a dusting of spice.	2008	£14.50
26 Chianti, DOCG Fontella, Italy A good Chianti with lots of red fruit flavours and a slightly earthy character.	2008	£19.00
27 Grenache Vin de Pays de Vaucluse, France Famed for his Châteauneuf-du-Pape, André Brunel knows how to make good wine. Classic Rhône style with lots of rich, ripe fruit and a hint of spice.	2008	£19.50
28 Rioja Reserva, Conde de Jaureguirra, Spain Everybody's favourite. Wood-ageing has softened this beautifully structured Rioja - Delicious!	2004	£24.75
29 Château Beaumont, Cru Bourgeois Haut-Medoc, France It's always good to offer something with a bit of age. Château Beaumont, despite being one of the largest estates in the Haut-Médoc, always delivers.	2002	£28.50
30 Bourgogne Pinot Fin, Domaine Robert Arnoux, France Using 60 year old vines of the finest Pinot Noir clone, Pinot Fin, a wonderfully soft, yet structured wine is produced. The domaine farms both organically and bio-dynamically, whilst also not filtering their wines - winemaking how it should be!	2007	£40.00

Full bodied, rich, spicy and hearty reds

31 Malbec, Trivento, Mendoza, Argentina Argentina does so well with the Malbec grape, it's easy to see why with wines like this - rich, fat and plummy with lots of warmth and soft fruit.	2009	£15.50
32 Pinotage, Oak Aged, Rooiberg, Robertson Valley, South Africa South Africa's own grape is earthy, flavoursome and thoroughly unique!	2008	£18.00
33 Ciconia, Alentejo, Portugal From the Port producing hills of the Douro, a rich, full flavoured wine packed with ripe bramble fruit.	2008/2009	£20.00
34 Palazzo della Torre, Allegrini, Italy Using a proportion of sun dried grapes in the blend, this wine is often referred to as a "baby Amarone". Softer and more approachable than Amarone and very drinkable.	2006	£30.00
35 Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Mas de Boislaizon, M et D Chaussy, Rhone, France Domaine-bottled, with the right amount of maturity. Chewy, big and rich.	2005/2006	£38.00
36 Zinfandel, Frog's Leap, USA With an emphasis on organic and bio-dynamic farming since 1988, Frog's Leap has always made wine with nature in mind. This Zinfandel is softer, more elegant and structured than some of the monster Napa style Zins.	2006	£40.00

Please note, should the vintage stated not be available we will offer something of equal quality.
